

Business Administration Advanced Apprenticeship Level 3

This two-year apprenticeship is designed for people who want to train on the job and gain a nationally recognised advanced qualification in business administration. It supports a variety of administration job roles in any industry e.g. executive assistants, personal assistants, business support staff and administrators.

We recommend that you start with our Level 2 Customer Service Practitioner Apprenticeship, as this will give you an excellent grounding in all aspects and help you decide on your future specialism. The Level 3 programme is more suited to those with some prior experience and looking to gain management and leadership skills.

Working and learning as an apprentice in the business world offers a variety of opportunities for career development. You could start as an office junior in a large organisation, trying out various departments to find your ideal career, or you could become a jack of all trades in a small business, working across many disciplines.

□ Ideal if

You are already employed in or wish to work in an administrative role with a high degree of autonomy.

□ You'll need

Two GCSEs at grade C or 4, including English and mathematics and be working in an administrative role, dealing with a range of tasks and a high level of autonomy.
