

BA (Hons) International Golf Management

University

The aim of this 3 year programme is to provide students with the key principles and concepts of golf management, both internationally and nationally. Graduates will be able to meet the expectations of employers as competent golf managers who can apply scientific and management principles to their practice whilst being able to predict the outcomes of theory actions and generate policy and management initiatives.

Students will learn the necessary skills and qualifications which will allow them to gain purposeful employment within the golf industry, whilst allowing them to continue their practical golf development and further their playing career.

There are additional programme costs of £9250.00 (excluding tuition fee of £9250.00 per annum) to cover the costs of all accommodation, golf tuition, range and gym facilities. Please contact jeanette.lyons@thegolfcollege.com for more information regarding deposits and accommodation.
