

City & Guilds Bricklaying level 2 Diploma

16-19

Adult

Could not see yourself in an office? Enjoy working outside? This could be the course for you. This course is a great start or to advance your career as a bricklayer.

The first thing you'll notice about this course is that it's about practical learning – you'll be spending a lot of time in our workshop, learning by doing as you work on a range of materials and tools. This will support you in advancing your knowledge and your employability

As a Level 2 course, this diploma is all about advancing your knowledge to the bricklaying industry and developing your essential skills. You'll be learning from experienced and professional bricklayers, who are there to give you the very best start to your career.

We do everything in our workshop: from brick to block work, line work, piers, corners, one brick thick walls, cavity walls, arches, render and finish plastering and much more! As you move up course levels these units will get more complicated as you progress through the course. L2 will give you knowledge of industry standards

The average Bricklayer salary in United Kingdom is £39,098 per year or £20.05 per hour. Entry level positions start at £23,414 per year while most experienced workers make up to £52,000 per year.

Our workshop features industry-standard equipment and kit, exactly like a working site. We also have a strong partnership with the local businesses, so while you're on this course push yourself you stand a great chance of getting an apprenticeship. Employers will ask us for feedback from The Cornwall College Group. Want to push yourself and try to find employment this is the best place to start.

Practical elements of brickwork and blockwork, including cavity walling and decorative brickwork. Theory modules relating to brickwork, Health & safety, and principles of construction.

This is a 1 Year course run over 2 evenings per week (Tuesday/Wednesday) term time only 6PM-9PM
